STIPULATION OF THE PARTIES TO THE ADMISSIBILITY OF CERTAIN TESTIMONY

The United States by and through its attorneys and Defendant JAMES TROIANO, by and through his attorney, Todd Eddins, herein stipulate that were Lancia Troiano to be called to testify, she would testify as follows:

1. Lancia Troiano is the daughter of James Troiano.

2. Lancia Troiano is fourteen years old and lives with her mother, Catherine Symonds.

3. In April or May of 2005, her father, James Troiano, arrived at her Karate practice in a black, four-door car.

4. In April or May 2005, James Troiano also called Lancia Troiano on her cellular phone. During the conversation, James Troiano handed the phone to someone he identified as "Wendell." Lancia Troiano had a short conversation with "Wendell."

5. In May 2005, James Troiano called Lancia Troiano on her cellular phone while she was at her grandmother's home in Waialua. The telephone conversation occurred sometime in the evening. During the conversation, James Troiano told Lancia Troiano to ride her bike to The Brown Bottle. James Troiano asked Lancia Troiano to get $500 from "Wendell."

6. Lancia Troiano did not ride her bike to the Brown Bottle at that evening. During subsequent phone calls, James Troiano told Lancia Troiano two or three more times to go to The Brown Bottle to get money from "Wendell."

7. During subsequent phone calls, James Troiano told Lancia Troiano that he had not asked her to get $500 but that he had asked her to get a chicken from Wendell. Lancia Troiano does not recollect that her father asked her to get a chicken from Wendell. Instead, she recollects that he asked her to pick up $500.

IT IS SO STIPULATED:

DATED: April 11, 2006, at Honolulu, Hawaii.
